Well, on the one hand I think that's a good idea. On the other, we probably don't need to both call her. If it's alright, I think I'll call this time since I want to forewarn her about the EPA letter that is coming. That might best come from EPA (me). Going forward, however, especially as the CAG becomes more familiar with you, I am fine with you touching base with them.... Jesse – any thoughts?
